

DIVA MEDIA ARTS - FALL 2006

www.proscenia.net/diva/calendar.htm

The DIVA Media Arts Program offers a wide range of programs including film, video, digital media, music and performance each year. The following events are scheduled for Fall 2006.

Updated 10-03-06

Eugene Noise: Events. A series of cutting edge noise events come to the DIVA Center October 7, 9, 24, 29, and November 2. All events at 9:00 PM. Admission $5.00 See: www.proscenia.net/diva/calendar.htm for details.

Bryan Boyce. Boyce, a San Francisco video artist, visits Eugene on October 12th bringing a collection of short videos featuring a mix of political satire and works inspired by music. The evening begins at 8:00 PM. Admission: $5.00

Night Gallery Film Festival I. An international collection of documentary and feature length films will be screened October 13-14-15. Show times vary (see online calendar listed above). Admission is $5.00. Eugene is the only West Coast host for this international event.

Best of the Eugene Film Festival. The DIVA Center and the Eugene Film Festival collaborate in presenting the best film selections from the 2006 festival - as well as some excellent films that were not seen. Join the festival on October 18, and November 15 at 7:00 PM. Admission: $5.00. Check the Media Arts Calendars for film titles

Video Slam. October 29. Artists screen their short videos in a competition following in the tradition of the Poetry slam. Show time is 4:00 PM with a sliding $2-5.00 admission. Find entry forms and more information at: www.proscenia.net/diva/slam/index.htm

Best of the 32nd NW Film Festival Program. The Center is please to present the best of this year's annual NW Film Festival held in Portland this past spring. The program brightens the Center's silver screen on November 4th at 8:00 PM. Admission: $6.00.

The Ethnographic films of Gabriela Martinez. Award winning Gabriela Martinez will introduce and discuss her work as a documentary filmmaker focusing on the cultures of Peru. November 10th at 8:00 PM. Admission: $5.00

Night Gallery Film Festival II. A second international collection of short documentary, comedy, dramatic, science fiction, horror, and oddball films will be screened November 11-12. Admission is $5.00. Eugene is the only West Coast host for this international event.

The Third Annual IMMI Fest. This unique event will be held December 8-9 and will feature guest artists The Knotty Ensemble from Vancouver, B.C., Canada. Local musicians will join the group in improvising live musical scores for classic silent films. Contemporary short videos with improvised music will also be screened. Admission is $5.00. Show times vary (see online calendar listed above).

DIVA CENTER 110 W. BROADWAY, EUGENE - 541-344-3482